CIVIL DIVISION OF THE INDIAN ORDER OF MERIT.

NOTIFICATION.

Calcutta, the 1st January 1909.

No. 2.—The Governor General in Council is pleased to sanction the admission to the third class of the Civil Division of the Indian Order of Merit of the Honourable the Maharaja Dhiraj Bijay Chand Mahtab Bahadur of Burdwan for conspicuous courage displayed by him at the Overtoun Hall on the 7th November 1908, in connexion with the attempt upon the life of Sir Andrew Fraser, the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal. On Sir Andrew Fraser's entering the Hall a young Bengali stepped towards him and presenting a revolver at him, pulled the trigger, but the weapon fortunately missed fire. The Maharaja Dhiraj of Burdwan at once flung himself between Sir Andrew Fraser and the would-be murderer. The latter was seized by Mr. B. R. Barber, the General Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association in Calcutta, but succeeded in again directing the revolver towards the Lieutenant-Governor and a second time fired the weapon without result. If it had not missed fire, the bullet would in all probability have struck the Maharaja who had courageously interposed himself between Sir Andrew Fraser and his assailant and was effectually shielding him from danger.

Financial (Funds),
No. 12.

To His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor General of India in Council.

MY LORD,

With reference to my Despatch dated the 12th of June 1908, No. 7 Financial (Funds), I enclose copies of a revised edition (1908) of the Indian Civil Service Family Pension Regulations.

Indian Civil Service Family Pension Regulations : Revised edition 1908.

2. The revised edition contains all alterations sanctioned up to this date, and shows the effect of the temporary reduction in subscriptions authorised in my Despatch dated the 12th of June last, No. 7. Rule 10 has been omitted as the rupee rates of contributions have ceased to exist, and Rule 20, as to the commutation of minors' pensions, has been brought into harmony with the new edition of the Military Family Pension Rules transmitted with my Despatch dated the 4th of September 1908, No. 10.

3. The revised Rules should be published in the Gazette of India for the information of all concerned.

I have the honour to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient humble Servant,

(Signed) MORLEY OF BLACKBURN.

The following regulations are designed to secure suitable provisions for the widows and orphans of members of the Covenanted Indian Civil Service (except natives of India) not being subscribers to the Bengal, Madras, or Bombay Civil Funds.

The Secretary of State for India in Council reserves to himself the absolute right to regulate from time to time the contributions to be required from Civil Servants under these regulations, and to make any alterations in the regulations themselves that may appear to him equitable: provided always, that the scale of pensions fixed thereby shall not be reduced in the case of actual incumbents. The Secretary of State in Council will endeavour to adjust the contributions to be levied from officers exactly, so that they shall neither be too large nor too small to supply the pensions provided for by these regulations. But if it should appear on experience that they have been fixed too low, the Government will not require any supplementary retrospective payments; and if they are found to have been fixed too high, no claim to refund will be admitted.

No insurance fund is established by these regulations. The contributions will be credited and the pensions charged directly to the Indian revenues as civil receipts and charges. But in order to adjust the rates of contribution from time to time to what is necessary to supply the pensions provided for by these regulations and no more, a separate pro formâ account will be kept of all contributions levied and all payments made under these regulations, and of the interest which would have been allowed upon such contributions if a mutual insurance fund had actually been established.

In accordance with the principle announced in this notification, that the Government does not intend that the pensions provided by these regulations shall bring any charge on the Indian revenues in excess of the amount specially sanctioned for the purpose, the rates of interest and of exchange with England, to be allowed in this pro formâ account, will be the rates which may be fixed from time to time by the Secretary of State in Council, upon a consideration of the market rates of the day.

All needful statistics of ages, births, deaths, and marriages will be carefully registered, and these statistics, with the pro formâ accounts, will be submitted at such periods as may be determined by the Secretary of State in Council to such actuary or actuaries as he may select, with instructions to investigate and ascertain whether the rates of contribution are such as will, at the rate of interest and exchange then to be reconsidered and refixed supply the pensions payable under these regulations, and no more. The expense of such actuarial enquiries and reports shall be debited in the pro formâ accounts reported upon.

Upon the report of the actuary or actuaries the Secretary of State in Council will order any necessary alterations in the rates of contribution.

The report of the actuary or actuaries, with the orders of the Secretary of State in Council thereupon, shall be published in the Gazette of India, and no alteration ordered in the rates of contribution will take effect before the beginning of the month following the date of such publication. No retrospective adjustments will be made.

The benefits provided at the cost of the State are shown in the regulations; but should it at any time appear from a valuation that the aggregate liabilities on account of those benefits, when the pension list shall have reached a normal state, will exceed 35,000*l.* per annum, they will be subject to such reduction as may be necessary to restrict the annual assistance to 35,000*l.* per annum, but the reduction shall in no case affect the benefits payable to incumbent annuitants.

Regulations for the Provision of Pensions for the Widows and Orphans of Covenanted Civilians (except Natives of India) in the Service of the Government of India.

1. Every covenanted civil servant (except Natives of India), not being entitled to the benefits of any of the late Civil Funds, must, as a condition of his appointment, make the contributions and payments prescribed by these regulations according to his class, whether he is married or unmarried, and with or without children. Subscriptions will commence from the date of arrival in India.
